

The Crisis of Philosophy in the 1930s:

Reconsidering the development of analytic philosophy, phenomenology, Neo-Kantianism and hermeneutics at the end of the Weimar Republic

Opening Conference of the International Sao Paulo (FAPESP) and Switzerland (SNF) joint project "The Crisis of Philosophy in the 1930s", together with a roundtable of the "New Ueberweg" on Hermeneutics in 20th century philosophy

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Guillaume Fréchette (Univ. Geneva)
Henriikka Hannula (Univ. Geneva)
Rudolf Meer (Univ. Bochum)
Mario Porta (PUC-São Paulo)
Brenda Soares (PUC-São Paulo)
Pascale Roure (Yildiz Technical Univ.)
Thomas Uebel (Univ. Manchester)
Sander Verhaegh (Tilburg Univ.)

ROUNDTABLE PARTICIPANTS

Caterina Zanfi (CNRS-Paris)
Christian Berner (Univ. Nanterre)
Dennis Sölk (Univ. Düsseldorf)
Carsten Dutt (TU Darmstadt)
Gerald Hartung (Univ. Wuppertal)
Guillaume Fréchette (Univ. Geneva)
Hannah Kirchner (Univ. Geneva)
Henriikka Hannula (Univ. Geneva)
Laurent Cesalli (Univ. Geneva)
Pascale Roure (Yildiz Technical Univ.)
Tim-Florian Steinbach (Univ. Wuppertal)
Simon Calenge (Univ. Bourgogne)

10-12 December 2025 |

University of Geneva
Espace Colladon
Rue Jean-Daniel-Colladon 2 1204
Genève

Part of the SNF-FAPESP project "The Crisis of philosophy in the 1930s"
(Dir. Guillaume Fréchette)

Contact : henriikka.hannula@unige.ch

more information:

